“I was very impressed with ASN NEURO. Our paper has already been listed on PubMed – less than a week since resubmission. The whole process has been very straightforward, quick and hassle-free. The ASN NEURO team seems highly professional and I would like to thank you especially for your editorial input. The reviewers were constructive and the manuscript is now something I am very proud of.” Emma Wilson PhD
(Assistant Professor, Division of Biomedical Sciences, University of California)
